

director Vacancies

Finding directors to suit all sizes of organisation.

When looking for a new director you want to cast the net wide enough to ensure you find the best person for the job. This is where we can help you.

Advertise your governance role to IoD members and the wider community with DirectorVacancies. It's a cost effective way to reach New Zealand's extensive pool of director talent.

Where will my vacancy appear?

- On the DirectorVacancies page of the IoD website.
- In the monthly DirectorVacancies email distributed to IoD members, we currently have over 8,500 members (where timings permit)
- boardroom magazine (where timings permit)
- The IoD Twitter feed, LinkedIn and Facebook.

How long will my vacancy appear?

There is no time limit. We will list your vacancy until the application deadline closes, or until you find a suitable candidate.

How much does it cost?

Not-for-profit organisations - $250 plus GST

Other organisations - $595 plus GST

“We had 36 responses, most of whom were highly qualified. This made shortlisting difficult but we interviewed six applicants and chose two, although any of the six would have been acceptable.”

Bill Robertson, CEO, EMQUAL

What do I do now?

Simply fill in the online form or go to www.iod.org.nz/servicesforboards and click on “Advertise your vacancy”.

Organisations are encouraged to allow at least four weeks of promotion before setting a closing date for applications to ensure publication in the boardroom magazine and maximum exposure to the IoD membership.

How can the IoD assist me further?

We can assist in a number of ways. This includes support such as management of candidate applications, and interview panel involvement.

Additional recruitment support is charged at an hourly rate.
