

The Nelson Marlborough branch of the Institute of Directors in New Zealand is inviting applications for its 2020 Emerging Director Award.

Eligibility

You must;

- Be a member or intend to become a member of the Institute of Directors in New Zealand
- Have the right to live and work in New Zealand
- Have never been disqualified as a company director
- Be currently seeking board appointments (ie it is not something that you are looking to do in the future)
- Have at least three years' experience in a senior management role in either the commercial sector, public sector, as a professional business advisor or from growing your own business
- Have at least 12 months experience of boardroom practice as either a director/trustee or working closely with or reporting to a board

Judging Criteria

The award will be granted to the applicant who most clearly demonstrates to the judging panel their potential to develop as a director and shows they have:

- A good understanding of and commitment to the principles of good governance
- Professional experience and abilities that would be useful to a board
- Taken steps to advance a directorship career

They will not yet be widely recognised as a director.

Award Sponsored by

The Winner Receives

- $1000 towards an IoD Director Development course of your choice to be taken within 12 months of receiving the Award
- One year's complimentary IoD membership
- A Director internship with a local board for 6-12 months
- 2-6 mentoring sessions with an experienced director
- Four complimentary attendance vouchers to Nelson Marlborough branch functions (including the Annual Xmas Dinner) for the 12 months following the Award
- Invitation to speak at the award presentation

All shortlisted applicants will receive judging feedback.
