

2023 Directors' Fees Report

The Institute of Directors (IoD) and EY have released the 2023 Directors' Fees Report. The report is a key source of information on directors' remuneration trends in the New Zealand market. This infographic highlights important trends and new developments drawn from a survey of 3,951 directorships held by 1,124 directors across 1,695 organisations.

Directors spending more time on board matters annually

(Median hours of work per annum for non-executive directors)

Median number of directorships held

THREE

directorships in 2023, unchanged from 2022

The typical length of a directorship is four years, down from six in 2022

Fee movement by entity type

Reasons for taking on a not-for-profit role

Non-executive directors' median annual fee

