

Director Sentiment Survey 2017

The Institute of Directors (IoD) with ASB has released its 2017 Director Sentiment Survey report. The survey takes the pulse of the director community in New Zealand.

Economic performance

30%

expect economic performance to improve in the next 12 months, down from 50% in 2016

Business confidence

69%

expect their organisation's performance to improve in the next 12 months, down from 74% in 2016

Stakeholder interests

91%

said stakeholder interests are very important to their organisation, up from 86% in 2016

Digital capability

30%

of boards have the right capability to lead their digital future

Ethics risk

44% of boards assessed ethics risks in the last 12 months

Ethical reporting

40% receive comprehensive reporting on ethics and conduct

Whistleblowing

32% discussed whistleblowing and how to make speak-up provisions more effective in the last 12 months